ORDER

The Syndicate at its meeting held on 31.12.2012 vide item read (1) above made the following resolutions to streamline the process of Ph.D registration of foreign students.

“ To allow the foreign research scholars having student visa to join the research centre immediately after the doctoral committee and allow them a maximum of 30 days leave for applying for research visa. The leave should be sanctioned by the Head of the Department, Subject to ratification by the Syndicate.

In cases where the students do not have student visa and have to go back to parent country to obtain their research visa, file to be put up and cases dealt with individually”

The Syndicate at its meeting held on 12.03.2013 considered along with the recommendation of the Standing Committee of the Syndicate on Research and Scholarships the requests from foreign research scholars to grant them registration for Ph.D research with effect from the date of the doctoral Committee meeting and resolved to grant their request . It was also resolved to grant Ph.D Registration to all foreign students with effect from the date of the doctoral committee on submitting the research visa and to allow them three chances for qualifying the coursework examination during the period of research.

Orders are issued accordingly.
